

Main Agar Kahoon

I am sorry it took so long and it's not that long because I kept getting lost in memories. I was sitting with my eyes closed and listening to songs while thinking about how to frame sentences to show you how much you mean to me and suddenly na "Main Agar Kahoon" started playing in the background and honest to God(i.e. you because you are the one I want to worship every morning) I have never related to a song more than this. The lyrics are just beautiful and every single one of them reminds me of you. You remember you once asked me which song I would dedicate to you? This is the one for sure. I feel like this song really captures what I feel everytime I look at you.

"Kehna chahoon bhi toh tumse kya kahoon?

Kisi zabaan mai wo lafz hi nahi

Ki jinmain tum ho kya tumko bta sakoon"

LITERALLY my feelings whenever I think about writing something for you. I could write a thousand words telling you how much I love you and it would still not be enough. You are the only person in my life baby for whom I can sacrifice anything. When I say I love you, I mean I love everything about you, I love it when you act goofy, I love it when you wake me up, I love it when you call me randomly just to tell me what happened, I love it when you dress up for me, I love it when you fight with me(tumhara hi toh haq Banta hai ladne ka meri jaan) and I love all those million other things that makes you, you. Couples take that 7 Janam sath nibhane wala vachn during wedding, I think I did that several years ago because I cannot fall in love with anyone else thats not you and "sach toh yehi hai ki tumsa haseen, Qayenaat mai nahi hai kahin". Baby You are to me what semi colon is to javascript. Without you every aspect of my life feels incomplete I have no idea how I survived so much time without you but I know I won't survive a single day if I don't have you by my side. Now I know you are going to say this line is cringe and all that but the line "main agar kahoon hamsafar meri, apsara ho tum ya koi paari". You really are an "apsara" baby. You are so beautiful it hurts to take my eyes off you my love. Your beauty is divine baby even though sometimes you say you are not looking good but trust me when I say there has not been a single day since we started dating, where you have not looked like the one and only incarnation of Aphrodite herself. I have told you this many time but the two things I love most about you are your eyes and your smile (can't rank them sorry). Whenever your eyes, which are literally like shimmering topaz, meet mine I lose track of all my thoughts and my mind stops functioning because they are just so captivating. And your smile oh my, I read a shayari recently which is so apt, it says "shamil nahi jis mein Teri muskurahaten, jo zindagi bhi jan-e-man jahaanam se kam nahi". I do everything just to see you smile babygirl because that is what keeps me going. I see you smiling and somehow I forget all my problems. You are my first love and you are the only girl I ever mentioned in my prayers. I love you baby I have always loved you and I will love you until the end of time 🥰 .
